

Professional Learning Network

Your One-Stop Site for Professional Development

- Create a personalized professional development plan
- Search resources – find out what’s working on other campuses!
- Free access to Skillsoft, Lynda.com, and Grovo
- Connect with peers
- System-wide calendar of workshops and conferences

We welcome you to come learn more about this amazing resource!

Wednesday, November 29, 2017

2:00 PM – 3:30 PM

HUM 210

In this session, staff will be introduced to the Professional Learning Network (PLN), a FREE one-stop site for all professional development and resource needs. Provided by the IEPI, under the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office, the PLN offers thousands of online trainings from Lynda.com, Grovo and Skillsoft as well as hundreds of resources shared by campuses. Communicate and collaborate with your peers across the system on shared best practices, to ensure student success for all!

Presenters: Candace Robertson, PLN Training, Outreach and Promotion Coordinator and Andrea Chatwood, PLN Online Content Manager

Please register with Brandi Williams at bwilliams122@gwc.cccd.edu by Monday, November 26th.